MEDIA ALERT

WHAT: Press conference on Governor Rowland's proclaimed CT Nonprofits Week, February 2-7, 2003. Photography exhibit launch of the Connecticut Association of Nonprofits' educational awareness campaign, The Face of Nonprofits.

The educational awareness campaign honors the 11,000 Connecticut nonprofit organizations that employ over 156,000 individuals who serve the 3.3 million people of Connecticut.

WHEN: February 6, 11:00 a.m., Press Conference- Legislative Office Building, Hartford, Room 1C, 11:00 A.M. to Noon. Contact: Nora Duncan, 860-525-5080 x27

February 6, 4:00 p.m. early admission for media, Photography Exhibit: First Experience Communications Studio Gallery, 3011 Main Street, Glastonbury. Public event scheduled from 5:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. Contact: Nancy Costa, 860-657-3815

WHY: Every day, nonprofit organizations help build communities, foster civil societies, strengthen the social fabric, and improve the quality of life for women, men and children of all ages and incomes in Connecticut. During uncertain economic times, the services and employment nonprofits provide become even more crucial to the people of Connecticut.

The press conference will give the media an opportunity to hear from people encouraging, supporting, working for, and being served by Connecticut's nonprofit organizations. The poster that will serve as the centerpiece for The Face of Nonprofits educational awareness campaign will be released to the media and information at the related photography exhibit opening the evening of February 6 at First Experience Communications studio gallery in Glastonbury.

PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES: February 6, 11 a.m.: Connecticut Association of Nonprofits Press Conference
